

What are your Activation Codes?

11:11 11:44 3:33 5:55 8:08

Have you had this experience? Several times in close succession you see the same digits displayed on a digital clock. You turn over in bed and it is 11:11. A couple of days later you are having morning coffee and you glance at the clock and it is 11:11. This continues periodically with the same result: you notice 11:11 more than any other time. If so, this article is for you. If not, this article is also for you because you haven't been paying attention.

All too often when discussing people's spiritual awakening, they complain bitterly that "If only they could get a sign!" A sign to demonstrate that they are on the right path. A few minutes later they go on to describe a situation that clearly demonstrates a synchronicity or an event that is THEIR SIGN. They just haven't seen it or "counted" it as a real sign.

These digital signs are all around us. They are the spontaneous recognition of a recurring set of numbers, often but not confined to triples of the same digit. My own series began several years ago with the 11:11. Soon it changed to 11:44 and most recently 555. Now you can't make this happen. You can't cheat and guess when the right time is coming up. It has to be accidental and spontaneous. What does it mean?

I believe that these digits are activation codes to remind us to get on with our real mission in this life time. The codes are supposed to wake us up from our slumber and activate our DNA to give us the tools to do the work required. Once you have acknowledged the code and started doing the work, the code will switch to another set of digits for your next activation or mission.

For me the 11:11 is a portal or star gate for world peace. Armistice Day, November 11th, 1918, was the day that the first world war – "the war to end all wars" – ended. Since that year, at the 11th hour on the 11th day of the 11th month, millions of people around the world have focused their attention on those people who died, and have subsequently died, serving their country in warfare. It is a profoundly important time to honour those people who were prepared to give up their lives for what they thought was right. It is also a wonderful opportunity to lovingly remove the barriers that separate humankind from each other in a Chalice of Love and mutual respect. Whenever there is an outer world focus on a major event that opens people's hearts, we experience an opportunity for spirit to move in and comfort and nurture all those who have suffered on both sides of the veil. What should you do on such an occasion? Well that's up to you. This is what I have done over the last few years.

On Remembrance Day, I would go into my own special place in the woods, here in Victoria, and find a secluded spot to begin my meditation. From this place, at 11.00am, I would just be able to hear the cannons go off at the formal ceremony downtown (which was perfect because my personally appointed time was slightly later at 11:11 a.m. on the 11:11). By this time I would be in my meditation reaching the vibrational frequency of Peace, often described as "The Peace that Passeth All Understanding." In that state the portal to all of humanity would open through the worldwide focus on this moment in time giving everybody the opportunity, if so desired, to experience this moment of peace. These are magical moments and opportunities in time not to be missed.

I hope you will join in on November 11th and create your own ceremony of peace either at one of the public services or privately in your own way. Remember that you will be joining millions of people around the world with focused intent – a very powerful and special opportunity. So what are the meanings of these different codes? You can find explanations in books and on websites, but my belief is that each code is very personal to you, and part of the mystery... and fun. It is for you to work out for yourself.

By the way, the Mayan Calendar ends with a special planetary alignment at 11.11 a.m. on December 21, 2012. What happens next is up to us to co-create a glorious future for all of humanity.

Peter K. Tongue © 2006